REPRESENTATIVE WORK

Cynthia is a partner at Lerners LLP, with more than 22 years of civil litigation experience.

Cynthia brings her litigation skill set, honed from years of actual on-her-feet experience, and her common sense approach to problem-solving, to a wide range of areas, including commercial litigation and arbitration, appellate advocacy, public and administrative law, professional regulation and health law. She has appeared as lead counsel at trials, applications and on appeals, and has litigated before every level of court including the Supreme Court of Canada. She regularly acts as independent legal counsel to a number of tribunals, providing substantive legal advice to the tribunal as issues arise during hearings.

Cynthia is certified as a Specialist in Civil Litigation by the Law Society of Ontario, and has her Qualified Arbitrator designation from the ADR Institute of Ontario.

LEADERSHIP POSITIONS AND COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTIONS

Cynthia has held several leadership positions at Lerners, including serving for two years on the Firm's Executive Committee. Previously, she served as Deputy Practice Group Leader of the Health Law Group (2013-2018), and was a founder and former head of the Appellate Advocacy Group (2010-2013).

In addition to her leadership roles at the firm, she has been and continues to be an active leader in the legal and larger community, serving in the following roles:

- ◆ Member, Board of Directors, The Advocates' Society (2022)
- ◆ Co-Chair, University Tribunal for the Office of Appeals, Discipline and Faculty Grievances, University of Toronto (2019 to present)
- ◆ Assistant Program Director, TCAS Gold Standard Course on Commercial Arbitration (Sept. 2018 to May 2021)
- ◆ Member, USMCA Article 2022 Advisory Committee on Private Commercial Disputes (2016 to 2018)
- ◆ Member, CBA Committee for the Consultation to the Canadian Judicial Council on its Discipline Process (2014 to 2016)
- ◆ Co-Chair, Arbitration and Mediation Practice Group, The Advocates' Society (2013 to 2016)
- ◆ Ontario Bar Association Health Law Section, Past Executive Member (2008 to 2011)
- ◆ Medico-Legal Society of Toronto, Past Council Member (2009 to 2012)
