PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

- ◆ Partner, Lerners LLP (2015 - present)
- ◆ Partner, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (1986 - 2015)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- ◆ Rob Bell is a senior partner at Lerners LLP, with over 38 years of experience in civil litigation and with extensive trial and appellate experience at all levels, including the Supreme Court of Canada. Specialty areas include class proceedings; complex multiparty litigation including cross-border product liability involving design and manufacturing issues in automotive, aerospace and consumer products industries; and major commercial and insurance issues. He has been involved over the years as defence counsel on many of the consumer, automotive and aviation class actions in Canada, and has been counsel on leading reported decisions as the law on certification, trial, bar order in class action settlements and counsel fees has developed in Canada.
- ◆ Rob Bell is published widely and is a highly acclaimed speaker and presenter. He has created and led numerous advocacy training programs for The Advocates' Society (including programs in Kiev, Ukraine, St. Kitts, Caribbean, and United Nations, NY), The Law Society of Upper Canada and the Osgoode Professional Development. He is frequently invited to participate at conferences as keynote speaker, facilitator, panelist and moderator by many legal organizations. Rob Bell was the recipient of the 2014 Advocates' Society Excellence in Teaching Award for his outstanding contribution to the profession. He is an Accredited Mediator, CEDR, (a leading UK provider of dispute resolution services).
- ◆ Prior to joining Lerners, Rob Bell was a senior partner at a large national law firm where he held a series of senior positions over the years, including Litigation Head, Managing Partner and concluding service in firm management as Chair of National Council.
