ABOUT VANETIA

Vanetia is an associate in our Health Law and Dispute Resolution and Advocacy groups. Having experience preparing, researching and resolving claims within the Superior Court of Justice framework, she examines the validity of evidence with rigor and crafts strategies tailored to the nuances of each case.

Vanetia has managed an extensive caseload that includes personal injury, building/structural matters, contract disputes, tax sales, fire charges, and real estate, frequently involving multiple parties.

In her health law practice, she collaborates with expert witnesses and develops protocols to minimize exposure to legal liabilities, while maneuvering the intricate web of healthcare regulations. In doing so, Vanetia leverages her skills to work through the nuances of medical negligence and professional liability litigation, disciplinary proceedings, class actions, and coroner's inquests.

Vanetia is team-oriented and brings an empathetic, results-driven mindset to her cases so that she can effectively advocate for her clients.
